3.7. What percentage of students who completed this program are employed in jobs related to the program? Are the jobs full-time, part-time, or contract?

Data shows that 100 percent of graduates are employed, 60 percent of employed graduates are employed in a related field, 40 percent in full time positions. (Graduate Employment Report, 2019-2020 of students who graduated in 2018-2019)

3.8. Who hires graduates of this program? Who are the employers? (Provide examples)

There are 6 key agencies whose primary role is supporting individuals with Deafblindness. Some examples of possible job titles include:

- Intervenor
- team leader
- supervisor
- program co-ordinator
- intervenor services co-ordinator
- manager

3.9. What is the program's/institutions reputation with employers in the industry/sector?

In a word, excellent, among employers and the community at large. Many employers look specifically for a George Brown diploma. And practitioners already employed in the field are often expected to return to school to acquire the diploma.

With regard to the College in general, in a 2006 Environics poll on post-secondary institutions in Ontario, Greater Toronto Area residents (who themselves or whose family members are in college or are college-bound) name George Brown the province's "best college." Most respondents, when asked which college they would attend, make George Brown their top pick. (The next most popular college trails George Brown by almost 10 points).

3.10. Can I contact current students or graduates of the program?

The college cannot give out contact information for current students or graduates.

Student testimonials are available on the School of Social and Community Services webpage
