

The Distinguished Faculty Award recognizes the outstanding achievements by George Brown College faculty members who demonstrate exceptional efforts in their role as an educator.

ELIGIBILITY

This award recognizes the contribution made by an individual demonstrating excellence in their work through actions of integrity and dedication, and an ongoing commitment towards the success of George Brown College and its communities. The nominee is a faculty member with a minimum of two years service (or six semesters of teaching) who has not received the same award within the past two years.

NOMINATION CRITERIA

The Nominee:

- Demonstrates leadership in developing an effective learning environment for students, both inside and outside the classroom.
- Makes contributions that enhance meaningful and deep learning.
- Engages in efforts beyond the traditional classroom, including faculty involvement in student recruitment, student success initiatives, professional development, strategic planning initiatives and faculty-led projects.
