

The Educator of the Year Award recognizes a single George Brown College faculty member who exemplifies the dedication and strong work ethic needed to be an excellent faculty member.

ELIGIBILITY

This award recognizes the contribution made by an individual demonstrating excellence in their work through actions of integrity and dedication, and an ongoing commitment towards the success of George Brown College and its communities. The nominee is a faculty member of George Brown College with a minimum of two years service (or six semesters of teaching) who has not received the same award within the past two years.

NOMINATION CRITERIA

The Nominee:

- Makes contributions in their teaching that nurture excellence within the broader institutional learning environment.
- Designs and provides transformative teaching and learning experiences for their students.
- Is widely recognized by their peers as someone who inspires and supports their educational excellence, in addition to their own.
- Demonstrates commitment to the integration of Universal Design for Learning (UDL) and equity-minded approaches in their teaching practice.
- Engages in ongoing professional learning and engagement within the college teaching and learning community.
- Demonstrates ongoing innovation and experimentation in their teaching practice.
